

ColdSnap Annual Ryegrass

Heavy dry matter producer, outstanding quality.
Great for extending alfalfa or legume stands.

Ratings

Persistence

Drought Tolerance

Winter Hardiness

Palatability

- Suitable for grazing or silage in fall (&/or spring in areas where it overwinters)
- Heavy dry matter producer with outstanding quality
- Great for extending legume stands or emergency forage

CLICK HERE FOR TECH SHEET

ColdSnap™ Annual Ryegrass is a winter-hardy variety bred for root mass and biomass production. Although it is used across the Midwest in cover crop plantings, ColdSnap™ Annual Ryegrass is a good fit in hay and grazing systems across the majority of the Corn Belt.

CHARACTERISTICS:

Establishment: Fast
Persistence: Low
Drought Tolerance: Low
Winter Hardiness: High
Palatability: High
Yield Potential: High
Grazing Tolerance: High

SEEDING:

